

Filo, terra

by Andrea Anastasio

FOSCARINI

DESCRIPTION

MATERIALS

Porcelain, textile cable, blown glass and varnished metal

COLORS

Amethyst Queen, Eastern Coral, Emerald
King, Teodora

It is an artistic masterpiece, resulting from the designer's concept of breaking the lamp apart and putting each individual component back together. Unconventional and oozing a strong furnishing appeal, the Filo floor lamp is an abacus of colours where even the electrical cable becomes decorative.

ANDREA ANASTASIO

After completing his studies in philosophy, Andrea Anastasio embarked upon a cultural path that led him to cooperate on projects entailing the cataloguing of Islamic architecture in India, research on innovation in traditional craftsmanship techniques, partnerships with architectural practices, publishers and museums.

Fascinated by the study of the poetics of conceptual art and its potential convergences with industrial design, he designs furniture and objects for Italian companies that play a leading role on the international scene. His research focuses on the manipulation of objects, consumer goods and domestic materials, to generate cross-contaminations of languages and meanings, such as in the Filo lamp, a project he coined for Foscarini.
